

Information for Contributors to Aerospace Technology Japan

1. The manuscript must be prepared in accordance with the template for publication image. The template can be downloaded from the JSASS manuscript submittal website (<http://www.jsass.or.jp/webe>). The pdf formatted manuscript is uploaded from this web page. Refer to “the manuscript pdf file specifications” below. The manuscript must be written in English and be as brief and concise as proper presentation of the ideas will allow.
2. Maximum length of the manuscript is 10 pages for the full article and 6 pages for the research note. Greater length is not acceptable.
3. Use standard symbols whenever possible. The use of metric system of units (SI) is mandatory, except for unavoidable cases.
4. If figures, tables, statistics, etc. are quotations from writings of others, the source of information should be noted in the captions. It is the author’s responsibility to secure such approvals as this may be required for quotations.
5. Color illustrations or pictures can be attached in the manuscript and they are published in color.
6. When the paper is accepted for the Aerospace Technology Japan and put on the web site, the authors are requested to prepare both the final release PDF file and the text data of manuscript as directed by the editorial committee.
7. Electronic reference file format acceptable is as follows: PDF, DOC, XLS, PPT, JPG, JPEG, PNG, BMP, ZIP, LZH.
8. See another information document for contributors to Transactions of JSASS.
